

Label with Inline Bullet Cell

| Sub-Segment        | Client Level Considerations                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|--------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| All Clients        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Extensive track record in their relevant sector.</li><li>• Experienced and diversified management team with clear separation of roles and responsibilities.</li><li>• Strong asset base with proven access to capital markets.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Tier One Producers | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• We engage selectively with sub-USD1bn-market-cap names under a capital-light advisory mandate.</li><li>• Private companies must have a strong financial sponsor (e.g. Orion, EMR, Denham).</li><li>• Asset base sufficiently de-risked through diversification of geographies or development stage.</li><li>• Technical specialists must validate any underlying asset that underpins a debt facility.</li></ul> |
| Tier Two Producers | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Substantial trading scale and strong record of financial performance vs. peers.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |